The undersigned purchased property from a senior citizen entitled to the Senior Citizen Exemption for the year listed above and has knowledge that the seller was 65 of age or older during the year listed above and that as of January 1 of the year listed above the seller owned the property described by the Property Index Number above or had a lease or contract that made him or her responsible for the real estate taxes and that as of January 1 of the year listed above the property was the seller's principle residence. At the time of closing the taxes were prorated in a manner which gave the seller full benefit of this exemption. I agree to present a copy of the closing statement of the conveyance mentioned above. I understand that this exemption can only be obtained if the seller has previously applied for this exemption by presenting proof of age and ownership in accordance with the rules of the Cook County Assessor and that it is unlawful to provide false information on this application.
