Reservation Guidelines

When making a Reservation, you need to know:

- Each rider is required to arrange their own reservation.
- Reservation cannot be left on our voicemail or made with the bus driver.
- Rides are scheduled on a first call, first served a basis. We begin taking calls at 8:30 a.m.
- Reservations may be scheduled up to two weeks in advance and must be made at least one day prior to your appointment.
- We do not accept same day ride requests.
- There is no bus service on Holidays which the Elk Grove Township office observes and weekends.
- Cancellations are strongly discouraged. Please do your best to keep your scheduled appointment.

When making a Reservation, we need to know:

- Your name.
- The time of your appointment. Our driver does their very best to stay within the confines of the schedule; however, you should be ready 30 minutes prior to your pick-up time.
- Precise address of drop-off and pickup location.
- The time you will be ready to return home. Our driver does their very best to arrive on time. Traffic and other unforeseen circumstances can delay our drivers; please be patient.
- Please remind us if you use a wheelchair/walker or need to use the lift.

Cancellations

How do I cancel my reservation?

- Please remember that other riders might have been turned away in order for you to ride. We strongly discourage cancellations.
- If you must cancel your ride please call (224) 265-6115 as soon as possible.

What happened if I forget to cancel my reservation?

- We will call you if you do not answer then we will mark you as a no-show.
- On the day of your reservation, if you cancel more than three times or have three no-shows, it will result in a two-week suspension.
